

Sagrada Familia, the cathedral's interior is inspired by the idea of a forest that invites prayer. Tree-like columns branch off near the roof for support, and in-between skylights contain green and gold glass to reflect light. Enhancing the feeling of standing on a forest floor and there are large coloured glass windows letting in dappled sunlight.

By Sam.O and Cameron